LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE P. and O. steamer Bokhara, with the next English mails, left Singapore yesterday morning (16th).

A CONTINGENT of one hundred rank and file leave Macao to-day, in the transport Africa, to reinforce the Garrison of Timor.

WE are glad to hear that the performance of "H. M. S. Pinnaford" will be repeated on Saturday, the 22nd inst.

WE are informed by the Principal Agent that the H. M. S. Djinnah with the outward mails, left Saigon to-day at noon.

H. M. TRANSPORT Himalaya, with the 27th Regiment on board, was expected to leave Singapore for Hongkong to-day; but until a telegram arrives announcing that she has actually left, there is still a bare possibility that she might be ordered to the Cape. If no order should be issued to alter her destination, she may be looked for in eight or ten days. It is supposed that she will get away from this, on her return trip with the 74th Highlanders, about the 10th proximo.

With reference to the order recently issued to the detective portion of our police force, requiring them in future to appear in uniform, we have heard a good story, but cannot reach for its authenticity. It is said that the rascaldom of the Colony petitioned His Excellency the Governor, complaining that a number of policemen went prowling about the Colony in plain attire, making it quite impossible to distinguish them from private individuals. The petitioners therefore begged His Excellency to remedy the evil by ordering all police officers to appear in uniform, and the petitioners would ever pray, &c., &c. The petition would seem to have been granted. We know for a fact that the detective police do appear in uniform now, but the story about the petition looks to say the least apocryphal.

THE performance by the Tyeon Japanese Troupe on Saturday evening at the City Hall fully realized expectations. Some of the feats performed were really wonderful. Tora Kitchie walked, dressed and postured on a thin wire rope, without the aid of any balancing apparatus, with the greatest ease and freedom. The same performer also exhibited some remarkable feats in top-spinning—the tops being spun and caught in his hand, made to run down a string, and perform other eccentric manoeuvres. Kiva Kitchie well deserves the name of the "Little Marvel." This little girl went through some gymnastic and balancing manoeuvres that would astonish an accomplished and fearless amateur gymnast. May Kitchie also exhibited some wonderful bending and contortion. The house was well filled on Saturday; and the performance to-night will be under the patronage of H. E. the Governor and Mrs. Hennessy.

(L. and C. Express, Jan. 3rd.)
Great hopes are entertained that the problem of a practicable route through the mountain barrier on the eastern side of Assam, which has hitherto foiled all European travellers in their endeavours to reach China from India, has at last been solved. We learn that a note on the Palkai route, which promises to be the outlet, has been prepared, and, together with elevations and maps, will soon be in the hands of Dr. Anderson, of the Calcutta Museum, for publication. By this route it is believed that the highest point to be crossed will not exceed at the outside 2,000 feet.

At a meeting of the China Famine Relief Fund subscribers at the Mansion House, Dublin, to dispose of the surplus of £460 remaining of the Chinese Famine Relief Fund, Mr. Brooks, M.P., suggested that it should be devoted to the relief of the Dublin poor, many of whom were starving, not only from hunger, but from cold. Mr. Gausson suggested the application of the money to the Turkish Refugee Relief Fund. Mr. Caulfield protested against such an appropriation of the surplus while there was so much distress in Dublin. It was ultimately resolved that the surplus should be devoted to the relief of the poor in the Dublin, the amount being divided for this purpose—50 per cent. to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, 25 per cent. to the Sick and Indigent Roomkeepers' Society, and 25 per cent. to the Association for the Relief of Distressed Protestants.

A kindly act at sea on the part of the commander of a German war steamer is reported. The barque Suzrain, which has arrived in London from Madras, reports that in lat. 48 N., long. 9 W., she signalled a German man-of-war, name unknown (probably the corvette Louise), from Plymouth for China, two days out, whose captain kindly supplied the Suzrain with provisions, refusing any payment whatever for the same. The timely aid was doubly appreciated as the crew of the barque had been on short allowance some time.

Gordon Pacha, "Chinese Gordon," of whom little has been heard of late, is reported to be carrying on an active crusade against the slave trade, having during the last four months seized no fewer than thirty-eight slave caravans. Three dealers, found guilty of mistreating their captives, were punished with death. Gordon Pacha declares that though he has done much towards the suppression of the traffic, much remains to be done, as the masses of the people are absolutely indifferent to emancipation. It is believed that Lord Shaftesbury will bring the question of the Egyptian slave trade before the House of Lords after the re-assembling of Parliament. The Chinese Embassy to Russia, consisting of thirty-five persons, servants included, arrived at Berlin on Friday last, the 27th inst. Its chief members are the Ambassador Chung-How, the Vice-Minister Shu, the Secretaries Tia and Tschubudsch, the physician Jules, and Mr. Hagen, a European, as interpreter. The Chinese Minister at Berlin had engaged a suite of forty-three rooms at the Hotel Kaiserhof, where awaited the arrival of the Embassy. On the 28th inst. the members of the Mission resumed their journey by railway for Russia.

Commander Stuart Hamilton Rickman (1878) has been selected for the command of the Frederic, composite gun-vessel on the China Station, in succession to Arthur E. Duggis, promoted to the rank of captain. The appointments of Naval Cadets—James J. C. Young and B. G. Godfrey-Faussett, to the Charybdis and the Hon. Stanhope Hawks, to the Iron Duke, on the China Station, are gazetted.

Captain the Hon. A. D. S. Denison (1878) has been selected for the command of the screw-corvette Encounter of 14 guns 1,934 (1,408) tons, 2,127 (250) horse power, and will commission this vessel at Sheerness on the 9th inst. for service on the China Station. The twin-screw composite gun-vessel Thistle, 4 recently returned from the China Station, was paid off at Portsmouth on the 31st ult., by Commander Hunt, into the 4th division of the Steam Reserve. She was thoroughly dismantled before being paid off, and though a survey will have to be made of her, it is highly improbable that she will be brought forward again for sea. Her boilers are completely worn out, the machinery is in a state of decay, and much of the planking shows signs of decay. In this state of ship it has until recent years been impossible to preserve the planking and woodwork beneath the boiler bearings, there being no room left for men to creep through and repair when the ship was comes to be examined serious defects may be discovered in this quarter after her double commission from home. Unless the cost of repairing the hull of a vessel falls below one-third of the original cost, it is only in exceptional cases that the Admiralty will authorize the refit. Gun vessels of the Thistle class are becoming few in number, at the same time that their services are in great request.

ALLEGED ASSAULT.

Tan Asing, Tang Chung Maw, and Kam Kwan Oh, boatmen, were charged with assaulting one Ho Au, a water cooler. The assault was a very brutal one, part of the complainant's right ear being bitten off, and he was besides severely beaten. He had to be conveyed to Hospital. P. O. Baines proved arresting the defendants who were pointed out by the complainant, but the complainant was unable to identify the man who bit his ear off. Mr. Francis remanded the case until the 21st instant and admitted the defendants to bail in surety each of $25.

DRUNKENNESS.

Augustine Rodgers, a cook unemployed, was charged with being drunk and incapable in a chair. Fined $5 or 7 days' imprisonment, and ordered to pay 25 cents chair hire or 2 days' further imprisonment.

HONGKONG RACES, 1879.

For the third consecutive year, the Races have been favoured with most enjoyable weather, at least, if the weather of to-day continues during another forty-eight hours.

To-day was a very fair specimen of the glorious weather of the winter months in Hongkong, although there has been rather too much sun for the Course, which was considerably too hard for the horses. Pedestrians and others must have also found the road rather disagreeable en route to the Course. The scene between the Clock Tower and the Happy Valley, and on the Race-Course has been so often described, that we will dismiss it on this occasion with the remark that the attendance both at the Grand Stand and in the Valley generally was fully equal to that of former years; indeed we are of opinion there were more spectators in the centre of the Course to-day than had been drawn together by the Races for several previous years. His Excellency the Governor, Mrs. Hennessy, Chief Justice and Lady Smale, General Donovan and Mrs. Donovan, and Commodore Watson, and we might say all or nearly all the leading civil, naval and military residents and visitors in the Colony, patronised the Grand Stand during the day. The Band of the 74th Regiment enlivened the proceedings with some music at intervals during the afternoon.

The Races were comparatively free from excitement until the fifth, that for the Valley Stakes, was reached, when Heather Bell just managed to carry off the stakes, and a dead heat ensued between the two next horses. Considerable excitement, and a great deal of rejoicing also, apparently followed the succeeding race for the Foo-chow Cup. Only three ponies faced the starter, and the race was considered a dead certainty for Iegrim. The favourites, however, have fared very badly to-day; in fact in no race save the "Garrison Cup" and the favourites be said to have maintained their reputation, or realised the expectations formed on their account. In this race the favourite was last, and the horse that apparently few people fancied against its two rivals came in an easy winner.

There was a good deal of cheering at the close of this event, and a considerable exchange of dollars. The time made in the Derby this year was an improvement on that of the last meeting.

The ground was very well kept by the Police, assisted by a number of men from the Regiment. Taken as a whole the first day's proceedings have passed off very successfully and smoothly, but we heard some complaints on the part of visitors and others in regard to the very select arrangements made with regard to the sale of tickets and race books, and the limited information afforded the public with respect to the races generally. Many persons not initiated in the secrets of the arrangements were at a total loss this morning as to where they could procure race books and tickets; or as to the time the races were supposed to commence. It would unquestionably be an improvement if one or two firms in the Colony were entrusted with the sale of the books and tickets, and the public were informed of the fact. Messrs Coxon and Byrie acted as starters, and Messrs Hopkiss and Gibb officiated in the weighing room. Lieut. Saunders, R.A., who acted as Clerk of the Course, was very attentive in seeing the general arrangements were all properly carried out.

FIRST DAY.

Monday, 17th February, 1879.

Seven ponies faced the starter for the first event on to-day's programme, a half mile spin, viz., Prince, Tien Ting, Midlander, Blue Peter, Shere Abbas, Ilo, Strathavon. The race was a short one, and therefore the hopes and fears of the knowing ones were soon set at rest. Ilo got away well to the front, and kept his advantage to the finish, winning a tight race, as his stable companion Shere Abbas and Mr. St. George's Strathavon were close on his haunches, and had the distance been greater might have somewhat altered the numbers. The latter were a dead heat for second place. The knowing ones were mistaken.

This race also somewhat upset the calculations of the knowing ones. There were six ponies came out.—The Doctor, Cyclop, Demonio, Egmont, Dibs, and Temptation. Demonio was decidedly the favorite, and heavy odds were laid upon his success. The start was effected in good order, the favorite making the running. The Doctor showed well to the front passing the Stand the first time, but soon dropped hopelessly behind. After passing the bridge, Egmont kept the lead. It was evident, however, that Egmont's powers were being reserved, as he showed he had a good deal of "go" in him. Demonio still stuck to the rails and was hard pressed, but passing the Village Egmont was given the rein and won a very pretty race by two lengths in splendid style. Dibs was held in too long, but had collared and passed Demonio ere the goal was reached, securing second honors.

As in the previous race, six ponies faced the starter for the Derby, viz., Redstart, Black Pearl, Black Moire, Giths, Expectation, and Bismarck. Great things were expected of Black Pearl, and the result naturally upset the calculations of many who had inked up their minds that they were in for a "pot" of money. A good start was made, Bismarck going off with the lead, which he kept a great part of the distance, having a lead of several lengths, until reaching the Rock the second time; Black Pearl being second. The relative positions were not altered much until passing the Rock on the way home, when all were hard pressed.

Giths came out of the rack, and coming up the Straight crept steadily to the front, and at the finish won easily by two lengths. Bismarck had managed to maintain his position with the others, and secured the second place. Hutchings, who rode admirably, was loudly cheered; and Mr. Kerfoot was heartily congratulated by both friends and rivals on his success.

Six horses faced the starter, namely Spurs, Red Robin, Midlander, Ilo, Strathavon, and Bay Rum. After a false start Ilo broke its bridle, and some delay took place while repairs were being effected. The competitors ultimately got away well together, and kept in a clump until one third of the distance had been covered. Ilo had a slight lead and maintained it until the Village was reached, when Strathavon gradually but surely drew up, passed the leading horse on entering the Reach, and came in an easy winner; Ilo maintaining the second position.

Dreadnought, Cumshaw, Black Diamond, Heather Bell, Wheel of Fortune, and Bayan, came forward to contest the race for the Subscription Grifins (the Valley Stakes). The race was the prettiest race of the day. Some little trouble was experienced in getting the unruly grifins into position, but when they did start they went at it in a manner which left no room for uneasiness. The favorites—Cumshaw and Black Diamond—got out of the rack, the latter shewing the way round. After passing the Rock, Cumshaw shewed signs of being winded and dropped gradually into the squad. Black Diamond still maintained a good lead of two or three lengths, but nearing the Village it was evident that an alteration was about to take place in the order of going, as the colors got a little mixed. Blue gradually drew ahead, and on entering the Straight Heather Bell and Bayan were close on the leader, who, however, a 11 kept the rails. Heather Bell and Bayan were both splendidly ridden, and about half way up the Straight the three were riding side by side. A few moments of intense excitement followed, but the result was soon known. Heather Bell landing a winner by a head; Bayan and Black Diamond being a dead heat for second place. The knowing ones were out again this time. Dreadnought had a bad start, but shewed that he had some good stuff in him, and if ridden with more care might have gained a place. The fortunate rider of Heather Bell was loudly cheered and deserves his success, this being, we believe, the first race he has ever won, although long associated with our local turf. His failure hitherto has been more owing to the bad mounts he has had than any shortcomings of his own.

This race will long be remembered in Hongkong as one of the greatest "sells" for the knowing ones ever chronicle. Three ponies went off to a good start—Scamp, Reichsfreiherr, and Iegrim—and Scamp made the running for the first round, all going easily. It was a mere game of follow my leader, Reichsfreiherr being last. This order was pretty well kept till nearing the Bridge the second time, when Nichols went to the front apparently without the slightest effort, and rode side by side with Scamp until going up the slope to the Rock; here Reichsfreiherr's superior qualities shewed themselves, and it was at once evident that Nichols had it all his own way. He increased his lead easily, and coming up the Straight had distanced his adversaries by a good few yards. Nichols amused himself at this time by pretending to whip up his charge—which, on the contrary, he was checking—and turning in his saddle to hall his opponents. Scamp's rider was so astounded with the turn affairs had taken that he was almost losing second place, and had to whip up to secure it. Reichsfreiherr won by any number of lengths in a canter, the favorite coming in a good last.

This day's meeting was remarkable for the favorites being placed nowhere. In some of the events they would shew good promise, but at the last moment the prize was, so to speak, snatched from them. For this the last race of the day six ponies came forward—Sheer Dowlah, Black Velvet, Cynosure, Surcingle, The Sparrow, and Bismarck. Surcingle was the acknowledged favorite everywhere, and the result was therefore all the more disastrous to the "sports." Bismarck looked like doing something when passing the Village, but he was reserved too long. Surcingle at this time had a good lead, but was closely pressed by Black Velvet, who shewed to the front in coming up the Straight, and won a tight race by half a length; the favorite being second.

Black Velvet (Lewis) 1
